ON "IMMIGRATION"

LAST SERMON OF MISSION WEEK WAS LARGE SUBJECT.

WE MUST AMERICANIZE

Christianize Those Here or Become Europeanized—Paganized by Them, Says Rev. Harkness.

"Today I found out in a measure an estimate of the wealth in and around Maryville by the amount that is stored away in the banks by the people. In the four banks of our city there is on deposit $2,100,000. There are 2,700 church members in the Protestant churches. The amount paid per capita for missions is 65 cents per year."—Gilbert S. Cox at the close of mission week observance in Maryville at the close of the service Friday night.

Notwithstanding the threatening weather Friday night, a large crowd attended the closing mission week service at the First Christian church to hear Rev. S. D. Harkness of the First Presbyterian church on the subject of "Immigration," a subject that was shown to be of such immense proportions as to require much more study and research than a sermon or one evening's address could give.

The young minister presented his discourse with deep feeling and stirred his auditors to thinking as they have never thought before upon the subject. He is the son of a poor Scotch immigrant, and the only foreign born minister of our city, and he could talk with personal knowledge of many things, and show up the duty of the American citizen to the people seeking here a better home than they can know in any other land, and it was with keen interest that his message was received.

"We must Americanize—Christianize, if you please—those who are here and are continuing to come, or be Europeanized—Paganized, if you please—by them," was the sum and substance of his talk.

His text was from Matt. 25:38-40—"Lord, when saw we Thee a stranger, and took Thee in? And the King shall answer, verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these, my brethren, even the least, ye did it unto me." A synopsis of the sermon follows:

"This nation is unlike any nation that is or ever has been. The experiment in democracy which is being made on this American soil is making great history for generations unborn; it is opening up features of nation-building and introducing elements of national character undreamed of by the heroes of Bunker Hill and Yorktown. The convictions of Viking and Celt impinge upon the prejudices of Magyar and Latin. We are handling high power explosives, and the question is whether we can effect the great experiment that shall profoundly influence the thought and progress of the world, or whether we shall be blown to atoms by forces too big for us to fuse. One hundred years of American history will convert monarchs into memories and the only order of nobility shall be that of the sons of God. The isolated populations must be brought into contact with American ideals through American brotherhood. The frontier of religious destitution must be made a fortress of righteousness. The empty rural church must be made dynamic with character. The city's impact upon humanity must no longer be cruel and relentless but merciful and Christ-like. And the immigrant must be spiritualized as well as naturalized. Herein lies the challenge of God to the American church.

"We are told that 'the sons of Ephraim, being armed, and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.' If the church is to minister to the mass as well as to the class it must forget whether a man came over in the Mayflower or in the steerage of a Cunard liner. If the church is not going to ignore the challenge God has given her she must boldly engage her men and her money, her prayers and her brotherhood for 'the least of these,' and she will put through a thing that will go down in history as the finest stroke for the perpetuation of our national ideals since the civil war. The lure of American industry is respon-

HEALTH TOPICS FOR CLUBS.

A Demand on Women's Organizations for More Accurate Knowledge on the Problems of Public Health.

The influence of women's clubs on public health questions has been steadily increasing. Now that they have covered the field in a general way, there arises a demand in women's organizations for more accurate knowledge on the important problems of public health. Recognizing that the state board of health exists for the purpose of serving the people of its state in every way possible, the secretary of the Kansas state board of health has prepared an outline for the use of women's clubs in studying health questions. This outline, issued in a small leaflet, will prove of immense value in directing the work of the women's clubs desiring to take up this line of activity. Under foods and drugs appears a study of foods, including their preparation and preservation, a discussion of a proper ration and selection of foods, food adulteration, the sanitation of food supplies, drug adulteration and drug addiction. Rural sanitation, school sanitation and hygiene, the cost of preventable disease, the disposal of waste and the conditions for a pure water supply are some of the topics included in the outline. Reference to bulletins, government publications, journals and books are also included. In directing the attention of women's clubs to these topics and in furnishing them a logical outline of work to be followed, the Kansas state board of health is not only doing a great service to the people of its state, but is also building up an educated following which will greatly improve the effectiveness of the work of the board itself.

LONG POSTOFFICE HOURS.

Department Will Ignore Eight-Hour Law During Rush of Christmas Mail Matter.

A dispatch from Washington says: Although deprecating the necessity for overworking its employees the postoffice department today announced it would be compelled to close its eyes to the federal eight-hour law during the Christmas rush of mail matter. Carriers and clerks, it was declared, would have to face the necessity of losing beauty sleep and putting in long hours in order that a congestion of mail matter might be avoided.

"While it is not desired to work any hardships on the employees of the service," said First Assistant Postmaster General Roper, "yet it must be kept in mind that the Christmas season is an emergency recognized by the department as justifying the employment of clerks and carriers for more than eight hours daily."

Postmasters are urged to appeal to their patrons to aid in preventing the congestion that usually takes place just before December 25 and during Christmas week.

Christmas gift givers are invited to send their packages earlier than usual, putting on the outside wrappers the inscription "not to be opened until Christmas." This precaution, the postoffice authorities declare, will insure better delivery and make much lighter the labors of the system.

W. T. JACKSON VS. G. W. ANDERSON CASE WON BY PLAINTIFF.

BEEN UP SINCE 1910

Judge Burnes Gave Jackson $1,109.25 as Rent and $131 for Another Claim.—E. A. Johnson Case Decided.

The attachment case of W. T. Jackson vs. G. W. Anderson which was tried Friday before a jury in the Andrew county circuit court at Savannah was won by the plaintiff, Jackson. The case has been up since 1910, during which time four interpleader cases were filed and disposed of. The defendant made a plea in abatement, stating that he was not disposing of the crops which Jackson claims he owes for rent. The jury sustained the attachment on all of the four grounds. Then judgment was given to Jackson by Judge Burnes against Anderson for $1,109.25 as rent money and for another claim of $131 with interest.

The jury in the Andrew county circuit court gave a verdict for the defendants in the case of E. A. Johnson, administrator, vs. S. B. and D. A. Williams. It was over a note of $65.

CUBS GET GAME.

Won Against All-Stars in Game Played at Normal on Wednesday Evening.

The Normal school league basketball games played Wednesday evening between the All-Stars and Cubs and the Tigers and Giants resulted in a 12 to 7 victory for the Cubs and a 10 to 7 count in favor of the Giants. In the first game the Cubs seemed to have the edge on the All-Stars in team work and in spite of Captain Vandersloot's valiant work his team was defeated. As did Captain Quinn, whose team also made 7 points. Vandersloot made 5 of the 7 points.

Field goals—Vandersloot, Ritchie, Woodward 2, Schaub, Nicholas, Webster.

Free throws—Vandersloot 3, Woodward, Schaub.

Second game: Field goals—Ford, Quinn, Powell, McPherron, McReynolds 2.

Free throws—Quinn 3, Powell, McPherron.

The first set of the second round of games between the teams was played yesterday evening, in which the All-Stars trounced the Giants to the tune of 13 to 7. The Cubs nosed out the Tigers by a 10 to 8 score.

This now places the All-Stars at the head of the list with a total of three won and one lost, the Giants and Cubs tied for second place, each having won two and lost two, while the Tigers have staked out the cellar position for their own, having lost three and won one.

The games last night were mostly "rough and tumble," and none of the teams displayed much science or team work. Practically all of the points gotten were the result of individual playing, which isn't the proper conception of the game. Summary:

All-Stars—Vandersloot, Lyle, Price, Ritchie, Neal.

Giants—Goodin, Jones, Powell, McReynolds, McPherron.

Field goals—Vandersloot 2, Lyle 2, McPherron, McReynolds, Powell.

Free throws—Vandersloot 5.

Tigers—Ford, Livengood, Quinn, Webb, Henderson.

Cubs—Schaub, Kissinger, Webster, Wells, Nicholas.

Field goals—Ford 3, Schaub 3, Webster, Nicholas.

Free throws—Quinn 2, Schaub.

Referee—Swinehart.

MUST STAMP MAIL

BEFORE DEPOSITING IT IN RURAL MAIL BOXES.

NO LOOSE COIN IN BOX

If Necessary to Use Coin Place in Coin-Holding Receptacles—By Order of P. O. Department.

Office of Fourth Assistant Postmaster General, Washington, D. C., November 5, 1913.—Postmasters at rural delivery offices and rural carriers are directed to bring to the attention of patrons that it is the desire of the department that all first class mail matter deposited in rural mail boxes shall be stamped before being so deposited. When this is not practicable coins left in such boxes for the purchase of stamps should be deposited in coin-holding receptacles and not inclosed in envelopes, wrapped in paper, or left loose in boxes. Postmasters and carriers should give this notice as much publicity as possible without incurring any expense to the department.

JAMES I. BLAKSLEE.

The above official announcement, issued by Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Blakslee, is the result of several years persistent effort on the part of the National Rural Letter Carriers' association, and is warmly welcomed by every rural carrier, coming as it does at the beginning of winter. There is usually no good excuse for the rural patron mailing his letters and post cards without stamping them, and to do so is simply to impose upon the carrier.

There are several other ways also in which the patron of a rural mail route may facilitate the delivery of the mail and add to the comfort of his carrier, especially during the winter months.

For instance, by seeing that his mail box is properly and securely erected. By placing his outgoing mail in the box in such position that the carrier may pick it up without removing his gloves. By making use of the application blanks furnished by the carrier when desiring a money order, and by always having his mail ready for the carrier instead of asking him to wait for it.

The value of prompt and efficient service on the rural routes should not be underestimated, and every patron of rural free delivery of mail should show his appreciation of the service by co-operating with the department in bringing this service to the highest possible plane of efficiency.

This he can do by complying fully and promptly with the requirements of the postmaster general, and especially with the one mentioned at the beginning of this article.

GOOD VOTE AT ELECTION.

Clearmont is Voting Strongly for Electric Lights—Forty for to Two Against.

At the time of going to press the vote at Clearmont on the electric light proposition was 40 for to 2 against at the special election being held today. The proposition that is being voted on is to increase the town's indebtedness $400 a year for ten years for the purpose of street lights. If such proposition carries, then Clearmont will make a contract with the Lee Electric company of Clarinda to furnish the juice.

There is no chance of the proposition falling at Clearmont, as the vote for it is too much to overcome.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES.

A Constitutional Amendment for a Higher Tax Rate for Schools Probably Will Be Submitted.

The recent meeting of the State Teachers' association at St. Louis was great in enthusiasm, unity, accomplishment and numbers.

St. Charles county teachers carried off the trophy cup with the enrollment of 118 per cent of the teaching force.

The school board section resolved in favor of giving the initiative in appointment of teachers and choice of textbooks to the superintendent.

A large number of members of school boards were in attendance. All the members of the board from Columbia were among them.

Consideration of a first step in simplified spelling was laid over until next year.

The course in teacher-training was highly endorsed by the association, and the legislature was asked to limit the use of the third grade certificate to one issue.

All teachers are commending the legislature and press for the fine law on consolidation looking toward country high schools.

A revival of Mr. Carrington's proposed law of 1905 for a county unit for education and a county board was launched with great enthusiasm.

Another move that seems to be ready for the near future is state aid for industrial training.

Committees to study and report needs in five lines will be appointed; county unit; constitutional amendments; industrial training; training teachers of agriculture; teachers' pensions.

The school board section passed a resolution favoring a constitutional amendment authorizing a higher tax rate for schools.

THOR'S HAMMER STILL USED

English Fishermen Consider It a Charm Against Drowning—Some Other Peculiar Beliefs.

The fishermen of Whitley would never dream of venturing out of port without a little hammer-shaped bone from the head of a sheep, known as "Thor's hammer," as this little object is a very special charm against drowning. The mole's foot is also a "sure" cure for toothache or cramp—according to locality. Amputated limbs are in some cases preserved so that the cripple may not be deficient in this respect in the next world.

At Scarborough an old peasant has come to be regarded as almost a wizard, for the country folks from round about come to him for relief from rheumatism. His "cure" consists of a copper bangle and ring, and on either end of the bangle two small-bore brass cartridge cases are wedged. These charms are sold to the patient.

In Suffolk a girl always keeps her first tooth; then when she marries and has a child the tooth is suspended about the infant's neck during teething, as it is said to bring instant relief.

These superstitions mostly exist in the counties which are washed by the North sea. Doubtless they are survivals of the days of the bold Viking marauders.—Ireland's Own.

Retold for Tourists.

The Bale-Geneva express, says the Standard's Geneva correspondent, was overcrowded the other day and travelers had to stand in the corridors of the second class coaches. One tourist saw a seat vacant, but covered with luggage and asked a passenger sitting near whether the seat was "occupied." "Yes," replied the stranger, "the man is in the restaurant wagon and will return soon."

There the matter ended until the express reached Lausanne, when the owner of the baggage prepared to get out.

"Pardon me," said the tourist, "that luggage does not belong to you," and called the guard. The latter sided with the tourist and the whole matter was placed before the station master. The selfish traveler had to prove, piece by piece, that the luggage on the seat belonged to him, and he finally was obliged to pay for two second class tickets.

Was a Thirteen Affair Generally.

The first Washington luncheon in honor of Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson, our president's bride-elect daughter, was given Thursday by Mrs. Josephus Daniels. Thirteen girls were invited, and as it was the thirteenth day of the month, and Miss Wilson will be the thirteenth White House bride, it was altogether a thirteen affair. Miss Wilson is not at all superstitious about the number thirteen, it is said, and the whole family regard it as a lucky number. All the White House girls were at the luncheon, among them, of course, being Miss Genevieve Clark of Missouri, who is a great favorite in Washington society.

The hostess of the luncheon is the wife of the secretary of the navy. A feature of the occasion was the presentation by Miss Clark, to Miss Wilson, of a small stone cross attached to a chain. It came from Virginia, where the stone is regarded as a "luck piece."

During the social hour the hostess served a dainty two-course lunch to those present, who were Mrs. Elmer Baker, Mrs. Ben Yeager, Mrs. Will Noakes, Mrs. Harry Farrar and son and Mrs. Claud Moore and son.

His Birthday Guests.

Mrs. D. R. McLeod gave a dinner Friday evening in honor of the seventh birthday anniversary of her son, Sherburne. The guests were the playmates of the honor guest, Truman and Cort Landon, Jackie Gray and Clifford and Ray Hull.

Entertained in Cottage.

The pupils of the seventh and eighth grades of the State Normal training school entertained the pupils of the fifth and sixth grades Friday afternoon. It was after the manner of a real reception and was held in the domestic science cottage, with Misses Faye Farmer and Fern Wright as hostesses, assisted by Misses Nellie Hutton and Stella Brown. Punch was served by Mary Louise Andrews and Lila Tabler. The entire affair was given in excellent style.

The Mothers' Circle Meeting.

The Mother's Circle met Friday afternoon with Mrs. George Moore. Mrs. W. C. Van Cleve, the president, gave report of the last meeting in the absence of the secretary. Mrs. C. E. White reported visits to two invalids to whom the Circle sent flowers. The Circle gave a vote of thanks and commendation to Professor Westbrook for taking up the matter of drilling the school children on the fire alarm, for keeping a teacher on the playgrounds with the children, and appointing a teacher to remain during the noon lunch hour with those who had to bring their lunches. Mrs. Eugene Ogden gave an excellent paper on "Religious Training of Children in the Home," and Mrs. White conducted the round table discussion on entertaining children on Sunday afternoons in the home.

The I X L Club Reception.

The members of the I X L Embroidery club surprised themselves Friday afternoon at their reception and art exhibit for two sister embroidery clubs, the Penelope and M. M. M. clubs, whom they received and entertained from 2 to 5 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Walter Mutz. The decorating committee had most artistically performed their duty, autumn leaves and evergreens being used in the rooms, and in the dining room the club colors, yellow and white, prevailed, and the flowers were gorgeous yellow chrysanthemums. In every available space in the rooms, where autumn leaves and evergreens were used, the work of the club was exhibited, a total valuation of $1,200 being placed on the pieces of Mountmellick embroidery and Hardanger work, in table and lunch cloths, doilies, towels, aprons, shirt waists, collars, handkerchiefs, table runners and dresser scarfs, point lace, Battenberg, Irish crochet, filet, cross stitch, punch work, knitted and crocheted bedspreads, round reed and raffia basket weaving. Mrs. Nixon and Mrs. Peery had the largest display, Mrs. Nixon having thirty-eight pieces. The club did not realize what they had done during the three years of its organization until the work was gathered together for its exhibit Friday. Some of the guests who had attended a recent art exhibit at Marshall Field's in Chicago pronounced it equal to anything on exhibition there in needlework. In the receiving line for the reception were Mrs. Walter Mutz, Mrs. Cooper Gooden, Mrs. I. W. Nixon and

NEW BUILDING IN CEDAR RAPIDS FALLS

Five Dead Believed to Be Buried Under Mass of Wreckage.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Nov. 15.—With a roar that was heard for blocks, the rear forty feet of a seven-story building, nearing completion, collapsed, carrying ten men who were working on the concrete roof slab. Four were taken from the ruins injured. One, a negro, George Burrell, died later.

The body of William Schneider, the foreman of the men at work on the building, was taken from the ruins.

It is now believed that there are five men still buried under a huge mass of concrete, fire tile and twisted steel used in the construction.

They are William Lowe, superintendent; Sid Doty, hoisting engineer; H. B. Westcott, Ed Loran, and Luther Moore, negroes.

The building was being erected for Lyman Bros. company, wholesale milliners.

The concrete for the seventh floor was poured two weeks ago and the roof slab over the remaining portion of the building had just been put in place. A portion of the roof slab gave way and fell to the floor below, where the concrete had not hardened. The floor gave way under the weight, as did all the floors beneath, the steel and concrete falling into a huge pile in the basement.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Mercantile and Industrial Situation Continues Fairly Satisfactory.

New York, Nov. 15.—Dun's Review says: Severe storms this week caused interruption to business in certain sections and also involved considerable property loss. Outdoor work was hindered and railroad traffic impeded, the consequent check to the movement of freight affecting both manufacturing and distribution. Advantages accrued, however, from the low temperatures and snow, which accelerated the demand for heavyweight apparel, footwear and fuel.

Broadly considered, the mercantile and industrial situation continued fairly satisfactory. Rather more encouraging conditions prevail in iron and steel.

Developments in the Mexican situation were an important factor in financial circles, with the better outlook reflected in a more confident feeling and a rising tendency in securities. Failures this week numbered 299.

Mrs. O. G. Wait of King City and granddaughter, Julia Katherine Ringgold, arrived in Maryville Saturday morning for a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nicholas, southwest of Maryville.

TO TAKE CHARGE OF REVIVAL MEETING AT BUCHANAN STREET M. E. CHURCH

DR. U. G. FOOTE OF LOUISVILLE KY.

Dr. U. G. Foote, pastor of the Temple Methodist church at Louisville, Ky., is coming for a two weeks' revival meeting at the Buchanan Street Methodist church, corner Second and Buchanan streets. He will arrive over the Wabash Monday evening or Tuesday morning.

Dr. Foote was for two years pastor of the Methodist church at Jefferson City.

He was transferred from that charge to the Francis Street Methodist church in St. Joseph, where he was pastor for three years, going from there to his present church in Louisville. While in St. Joseph he led the fight against the "vice restaurants." Since going to Louisville he has been active in several movements looking toward a cleaner city.

ON "IMMIGRATION"

sible for the coming of the immigrant.

"As I stand on this platform tonight there are ten thousand families talking about coming to America. American industry means freedom from poverty and ignorance. The immigrant of today comes to the United States not merely to make a living, but to make a better living than is possible at home. He has something to sell—the labor of his hands—and he is looking for the best market. He is a son of the soil; his plain living and clean blood give him a heritage of unschooled strength for factory and farm.

The expansion of American industry in the past ten years reads like a romance. There are employed seven hundred fifty thousand men in the mines and factories east of the Rockies, and three-fifths of them are foreign born.

"If you will visualize the map of the United States, I will draw a line from the Canadian border of Minnesota south to Minneapolis and on southeast to St. Louis. From St. Louis east and a little north to Baltimore. In this northeast portion of the nation as defined by the lines I have just drawn you have the industrial zone, the workshop of America. Of course, there are important industries outside this zone, such as the cotton mills of North Carolina, the steel mills of Alabama and the mining industries of the great northwest. But they are insignificant as compared to the mining, iron and steel activities of Pennsylvania, the manufacturing of Massachusetts and Rhode Island and the commercial importance of New York, Boston, Buffalo, Chicago and Baltimore. More than 80 per cent of all the coal produced in the Union is dug in this zone. More than 90 per cent of all the iron and steel produced in the nation is produced here. We have in this nation fifty cities that have one hundred thousand or more population, and thirty-two of them are in the territory under consideration. Within this same industrial zone, including fifteen states there are living forty-six million people, about one-half of our national population, and every fourth man in these fifteen states is an immigrant. It is a disturbing thought that should this vast company of people pack up their bags and bundles, and leaving their stifling tenements, set sail for Europe in the morning, that the industries of America would be paralyzed and the wheels of commerce stalled. That would, indeed, be a bad day for America.

"The vices of America and the selfishness of American employers make the immigrant a terrific problem. I am not going to argue that the immigrant is an angel, but he is a man. He undoubtedly brings more or less evil with him, but he brings more than he ever dreamed existed before he came here. Because he can speak no English he goes to the city community of his own people. He finds his own people in the dirtiest, most crowded and most degraded part of the city. The forces of sin are practically unopposed. The downtown churches have retreated uptown to the fashionable residential parts of the city. The saloons, however, have stayed on the job. I will cite you a church in St. Joseph which has given up its old building and location at the most strategic point in the city, and in that old building today the Moose lodge, composed of about fourteen hundred men, most of them foreigners, is located. When the church people moved out the immigrant moved in. 'I was a stranger and ye took me in.' Oh, no; we let you come in, after we were safely out. The white slavers meet every ship. They find it pays to stick close to the immigrant girl. The immigrant is exploited on every hand, but not evangelized. He is corrupted but not converted. Naturalized in two-step time by the Murphy organization in New York and by the Carter H. Harrison organization in Chicago, he awaits in vain for spiritualization in America's church.

"The Associated Charities gave out these figures a couple of years ago. If a Lithuanian miner has three children and a wife to support, and work 365 days in the year, twelve hours a day, and he buys his food, clothing and fuel from the company's store, as he is compelled to do, he finds himself $12 in debt at the end of the year. These figures were obtained from the mills formerly owned by a well known apostle of peace, a gentleman who distributes libraries and pipe organs by the gross. And the conditions were not otherwise in the days of his proprietorship. What of the morality, the comfort and happiness of people forced to live like that? Vice and poverty have the immigrant between them. Where is the church?

"The boundary line for a new industrial zone is about to be drawn.

"The Rocky mountain chain will mark off the Pacific states into a new zone, as soon as the Panama canal is opened to commerce. Sociological experts tell us that the Pacific states can support and will have twenty millions before the middle of the present century. The soil may be able to stand it, but the strain on our institutions will be terrific. California appeals more potently to the Italian than any other portion of American soil. Its climate is better and its soil is capable of producing nearly twice as much as his own beloved Italy. He can get rich on ten acres. But the Italian feels the pull of the city as well. There are fifty thousand of him in San Francisco alone and the churches are straining every resource to cope with the problem and they are hardly touching it. I tell you the spiritual strategy of the times demands access to the resources of the whole church to relieve these special and localized needs. Home missions is no longer an appeal; it is a command. As Dr. Fullerton of the Presbyterian home board said in my pulpit a year ago, 'Unless we Americanize the immigrant he will Europeanize us.'

"Now, what is the home mission call?

"It is the call of patriotism. I remember as a boy how I used to lie stretched out on the rug in my father's home and read Gibbon's 'Rise and Fall of the Roman Empire.' I am wondering tonight if, after five hundred years have moved by, the little Mongolian boy will not be stretched out by his father's fireside, reading the 'Rise and Fall of the American Republic.' How can we save America? The church of God holds the answer. Hamlet spoke about taking up 'arms against a sea of troubles.' There are seas of trouble against which a battleship might force its prow in vain—the dominance of merciless corporations, the volcanic rumblings of a widespread and deep rooted discontent, the pride of eyes that cannot see God, and the lust of life that knows no human accountability, the slipping away from the moorings of the ancient faith and the drift into the cold black night pierced by no Bethlehem star of hope. And only the church of Jesus Christ can show the road for our going, and furnish the motive power for our advance.

"I know this is denied, yea, laughed at. Are we not at the top of civilization? So has been every empire that has broken upon the shoals of fate. Have we not good laws? So had Rome. Have we not fine literature? So had Greece. Not yet has the world reached the pinnacle of the Parthenon. Have we not fine arts? So had Europe in the days of her wildest profligacy and her deepest degeneracy.

"If there is one lesson history has painted in fire and blood upon her canvas, it is this: To the nation, as to the man, to be without God is to be without hope.

"But have we not God on our minted coin, in our state documents and in ten thousand pulpits? The only God that can save America and American institutions is the God in the hearts of the people. Is He there when the vast majority of our workingmen—the very brawn of our nation—are non-church? When, as you have heard through this week, some states do not have a fifth or a tenth of their population Christian even in name? In this appeal for the immigrant, which is the dominant home mission problem, I am not appealing primarily for emigration for the church as an institution, for more men to proclaim her message, or printing presses to fling it out. My appeal strikes deeper. I will trust in the ultimate triumph of American democracy and the American church, if we can but deepen the spiritual consciousness of American people. Then there will be no lack of power. The church then will be geared to the whole issue as tonight she is not. 'I hear the tramp of pioneers, Of nations yet to be, The first low wash of waves where soon Will roll a human sea.'

"If this human sea of immigration now breaking in through the coasts of this continent shall be lit with the Gospel sunrise, it will in turn kindle the coasts of the pagan Orient until the whole earth shall be full of thy glory.' It is no Yankee bluster, but the interpretation of Providence, which bids us say. The future of America and the future of truth and righteousness are one and inseparable. As goes America so goes the world. So first upon these shores home and foreign missions strike their palms together and affirm the unity of the Kingdom of God."

PROFITABLE DAILY TITHING.

"Daily Heavenly Manna." This little book is having the largest circulation of any of its kind and is conceded by Christians everywhere to be the most helpful.

If Christians allow the rush and crush of selfish ambition to deprive them of their daily portion of heavenly food, they must not be surprised if they grow spiritually leaner day by day, and if the peace of God gives place in their hearts to the discontent which is growing in the world, notwithstanding the multiplication of our comforts and privileges.

Daily Heavenly Manna contains a collection of Scripture texts with appropriate quotations for every day in the year. Surely the little tithe of time daily spent in partaking of its morsels of heavenly counsel cannot fail to profit all who partake. It is published to do good—not for profit.

Your Friends' Birth Dates. An autograph and birthday record feature in this book is a great convenience. Opposite each day of the year are blank lines upon which you can secure the autographs of your friends and be reminded of their birthdays as they occur. This makes the book more valuable yearly. In ten years you would not sell it for ten dollars.

Besides it has a place for Birth Records, Marriage Records and Death Records. Also it has a table showing the day of the week of any date for one hundred and fifty years.

SOME DEFINITE PROMISE SOUGHT

Limits Washington Will Go to Renew Parleys Told.

HUERTA'S ADVISERS ANXIOUS.

Carranza Issues Manifesto Declaring He Will Not Accept Outside Interference—Protection of Foreigners Sole Purpose of Hale's Parleys.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Instructions were sent to Charge d'Affaires Nelson O'Shaughnessy indicating to him the extent to which the United States government would go in reopening the negotiations with those counselors of Provisional President Huerta, who earlier in the day sought to renew the parleys.

The anxiety shown by these officials close to General Huerta was regarded as a favorable sign by high officials here who expected some definite assurances would be forthcoming quickly upon compliance with the American demand that the new congress be convened and that General Huerta be eliminated.

The position of the American government, however, is that unless something definite is promised by the Huerta officials the resumption of the negotiations would be fruitless.

Dispatches from constitutionalist headquarters at Nogales, Sonora, announcing General Carranza's absolute refusal to accept any "transaction" with foreign nations looking toward a regulation of Mexico's internal affairs was not commented upon by government officials here. It was suggested in some quarters that General Carranza's declaration was intended chiefly to allay any feeling in Mexico that he was entering into alliances with the United States, a situation that might be made an issue, it is realized here, and develop discord among his followers.

It is stated on the authority of persons in President Wilson's confidence that the Washington administration has never offered mediation through William Bayard Hale or any other interference with a view to regulating internal affairs in Mexico. The sole purpose of the parleys through Mr. Hale, it is pointed out, has been to obtain assurance of protection for all foreign interests in the event that the embargo on arms is lifted.

SUNSET TIED UP BY STRIKE

Officials Man Two Passenger Trains. All Others Annulled.

New Orleans, Nov. 15.—Except for two passenger trains, one arriving and one leaving here, traffic on the Southern Pacific railway in Louisiana is tied up by the strike of engineers and trainmen.

The road will not attempt to operate freight trains and all passenger trains but two through trains have been annulled indefinitely.

The train arriving at New Orleans was manned by the road's division of officials from Lafayette, La., and the same crew took out the westbound train. No violence was attempted and the crew was not subjected to the usual hoots and jeers attending a strike. Union officials told the men that attempts at violence would mean expulsion of the perpetrators.

The strike will spread further to the west. With the loss of millions of dollars threatening sugar and rice producers of Louisiana because of the strike, business men sent a long message to President Wilson appealing to him personally to intervene to help settle the strike, and learned with pleasure that Assistant Commissioner Hanger had been dispatched to offer his services as mediator.

TAMMANY BAGMAN INDICTED

Everett P. Fowler of Kingston, N. Y., Charged With Extortion.

New York, Nov. 15.—Everett P. Fowler of Kingston, N. Y., who was described by John A. Hennessy, graft investigator for former Governor Sulzer, as the Tammany "bagman" for contributions from state highway contractors, was indicted on a charge of extortion. He was accused of forcing Seneca P. Hull, a highway contractor of Cortland, N. Y., and an enrolled Republican, to give $250 as a Democratic campaign contribution under threat that the work on Hull's $23,500 state road contract in Cortland county would not be approved by the state highway inspectors.

Tight Corsets and Belts Blamed. Chicago, Nov. 15.—The tight corsets on women and tight belts for men are constant causes of serious ailments of the stomach, according to surgeons who saw Dr. Herbert Patterson of London perform an operation to provide a new outlet for a stomach to replace a badly abused pylorus, which had become inactive. The operation was on a woman and the inertness of the pylorus, surgeons said, was chiefly due to the tight corsets.

Schneider's Term Cut to Two Months.

Washington, Nov. 15.—President Wilson commuted to sixty days the one-year sentence to Joost H. Schneider of Tucson, Ariz., convicted of land frauds after a long battle. F. A. Hyde of San Francisco, convicted with Schneider, will have to serve a full year. Both men will go to Atlanta penitentiary.

SPENCER GIVEN DEATH PENALTY

Murderer of Tango Teacher Convicted at Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Henry Spencer, confessed slayer of Mrs. Mildred Allison Rexroat, a dancing teacher, was found guilty of murder by a jury at Wheaton. The death penalty was fixed by the jury.

Spencer was arrested Oct. 5, accused of having lured Mrs. Rexroat to Wayne, and placed her body on the railroad tracks after he had shot her to death. Immediately after his arrest Spencer began a wholesale confession, in which he declared he had murdered twenty-nine persons, most of them women. Although the police proved that Spencer could not have committed many of these murders, they still maintain the belief that he killed at least one or two women in addition to the dancing teacher.

Spencer has insisted that he be given the death penalty. When his trial began, however, his attitude in the court room was one of such violence that Prosecutor Hadley saw in it a well defined attempt to establish the belief that the defendant was insane. Spencer was the only witness to take the stand for the defense. For fifteen minutes he cursed and reviled his counsel and the state's attorney.

Spencer broke into another stream of profanity when he heard the verdict read and then fainted in his chair. "They'll hang me," he shouted. "They got me. They got me. How does the jury know I wasn't insane? I was insane. I am crazy."

TAFT FLAYS CALIFORNIANS

Says They Should Be Restrained From Mistreating Japs.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Asserting that the Japanese government had faithfully lived up to its treaty obligations by keeping its coolie labor from American shores, former President Taft, in an address before the National Geographic society here, declared that the United States government must keep faith with Japan by refusing to discriminate against its people.

"And," he said, "no matter what the reckless and unjust acts of thoughtless people in California or elsewhere may be they should be restrained."

Before a distinguished gathering of scientists and government officials, the former president scouted the probability of war between Japan and the United States, saying it was the last thing the statesmen of Japan desired. "The only danger of a war," he added, "lies in our injustice to the Japanese. They are fighting the battle for trade and not for conquest or further acquisition of territory, at least in this direction. All we have to do to avoid other than business rivalry is to treat them as we would wish to be treated."

Dead in Great Lakes Storm 256. Port Huron, Mich., Nov. 15.—No further report of loss of life in the great storm which swept the great lakes was received here. One more boat was reported wrecked. The steamer Major went ashore off White Fish point, in Lake Superior, and was abandoned by its crew after a futile effort had been made to weather the second storm of the week. The crew was picked up by a passing steamer. The loss of life among sailors due to the storm is estimated at 256, and the property loss is figured at more than $5,000,000.

CURRENCY BILL DRAFT FINISHED

Six Democrats of Committee Go to Senate Next Week.

GOES TO SENATE NEXT WEEK.

Five Republicans and Hitchcock Organize as the Only Bona Fide Currency Committee, With Nebraska Senator as Chairman.

Washington, Nov. 15.—The administration currency reform bill, as it probably will go to the senate with the approval of President Wilson, was completed by six Democrats of the senate banking and currency committee. Senator Hitchcock and the five Republican members of the committee continued to write into their draft of the measure amendments of which the White House has disapproved. Arrangements probably will be made to send both bills to the senate for consideration some time next week. As completed by the Democrats the measure provides for a system of eight regional banks, to be capitalized by enforced subscriptions from the national banks of the country with unlimited powers of rediscount and currency issue and the power to hold reserves, the entire system to be under the control of a federal reserve board.

Hitchcock Chairman.

Senator Hitchcock and the Republicans, holding that they were the only bona fide banking and currency committee, organized by designating Senator Hitchcock, "the ranking Democrat, as chairman." They declared that the secret session of Chairman Owen and his administration senators was entirely outside of the committee. The matter probably will be straightened out today, when the administration forces plan to go into committee meeting and endeavor to arrange some program for a report. Senator Hitchcock and the Republicans went after the bill in vigorous fashion. They eliminated entirely a provision allowing the appointment of receivers for insolvent regional banks, holding that a receiver would only tie up the entire reserves of the banks, and that there was no possibility of a regional bank failing. The administration senators put in a provision that no receiver should be appointed, but that the federal reserve board should "take possession of and administer the functions of any regional bank which might become insolvent."

DEFENDS WHIPPING POST

Bareback Lashing of Delaware Convicts Discussed in House.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Bareback whipping of convicts in Delaware was defended in the house by Representative Brockson of that state in a speech that bristled with biblical quotations and legal citations in favor of the rod and whip for chastisement.

Mr. Brockson declared false the charge that Delaware had administered "cruel and unusual punishment," and said the practice of making martyrs of criminals was a disgrace of modern society.

"I have but little patience," said he "with any man who permits his sympathy to forget the rights of law-abiding citizens of the state."

"The state of Delaware," said Brockson, "being satisfied of the justice of its laws, is willing to stand alone for that which is right rather than to stand with the multitude for that which is wrong."

A resolution by Representative Evans of Montana to direct the president and attorney general to bring in junction proceedings against the Delaware authorities to prevent the whipping of prisoners at Newcastle, Del., today was left by the house without action.

Must Work Extra Christmas Week

Washington, Nov. 15.—Although deprecating the necessity for overworking its employees, the postoffice department announced that it would be compelled to close its eyes to the federal eight-hour law during the Christmas rush of mail matter. Carriers and clerks, it was declared, would have to face the necessity of putting in long hours in order that a congestion of mail matter might be avoided.

Seer Admits He Received Money.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—James R. Ryan the clairvoyant charged with assisting in swindling Mrs. Hope L. McEldowney out of $15,000, surprised the prosecution by testifying that he received the money from her. He asserted, however, that he really wished to marry her and that she gave him the money to effect a settlement with his wife, thus removing the only barrier to their union.

Slayer Escapes on Way to Prison.

ON "IMMIGRATION"

LAST SERMON OF MISSION WEEK WAS LARGE SUBJECT.

WE MUST AMERICANIZE

Christianize Those Here or Become Europeanized—Paganized by Them, Says Rev. Harkness.

"Today I found out in a measure an estimate of the wealth in and around Maryville by the amount that is stored away in the banks by the people. In the four banks of our city there is on deposit $2,100,000. There are 2,700 church members in the Protestant churches. The amount paid per capita for missions is 65 cents per year."—Gilbert S. Cox at the close of mission week observance in Maryville at the close of the service Friday night.

Notwithstanding the threatening weather Friday night, a large crowd attended the closing mission week service at the First Christian church to hear Rev. S. D. Harkness of the First Presbyterian church on the subject of "Immigration," a subject that was shown to be of such immense proportions as to require much more study and research than a sermon or one evening's address could give.

The young minister presented his discourse with deep feeling and stirred his auditors to thinking as they have never thought before upon the subject. He is the son of a poor Scotch immigrant, and the only foreign born minister of our city, and he could talk with personal knowledge of many things, and show up the duty of the American citizen to the people seeking here a better home than they can know in any other land, and it was with keen interest that his message was received.

"We must Americanize—Christianize, if you please—those who are here and are continuing to come, or be Europeanized—Paganized, if you please—by them," was the sum and substance of his talk.

His text was from Matt. 25:35-40—"Lord, when saw we Thee a stranger, and took Thee in? And the King shall answer, verily I say unto you, inasmuch as ye did it unto one of these, my brethren, even the least, ye did it unto me." A synopsis of the sermon follows:

"This nation is unlike any nation that is or ever has been. The experiment in democracy which is being made on this American soil is making great history for generations unborn; it is opening up features of nation-building and introducing elements of national character undreamed by the heroes of Bunker Hill and Yorktown. The convictions of Viking and Celt impinge upon the prejudices of Magyar and Latin. We are handling high power explosives, and the question is whether we can effect the great experiment that shall profoundly influence the thought and progress of the world, or whether we shall be blown to atoms by forces too big for us to fuse. One hundred years of American history will convert monarchs into memories and the only order of nobility shall be that of the sons of God. The isolated populations must be brought into contact with American ideals through American brotherhood. The frontier of religious destitution must be made a fortress of righteousness. The empty rural church must be made dynamic with character. The city's impact upon humanity must no longer be cruel and relentless but merciful and Christ-like. And the immigrant must be spiritualized as well as naturalized. Herein lies the challenge of God to the American church.

"We are told that 'the sons of Ephraim, being armed, and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle.' If the church is to minister to the mass as well as to the class it must forget whether a man came over in the Mayflower or in the steerage of a Cunard liner. If the church is not going to ignore the challenge God has given her she must boldly engage her men and her money, her prayers and her brotherhood for 'the least of these,' and she will put through a thing that will go down in history as the finest stroke for the perpetuation of our national ideals since the civil war. The lure of American industry is respon-

HEALTH TOPICS FOR CLUBS.

A Demand on Women's Organizations for More Accurate Knowledge on the Problems of Public Health.

The influence of women's clubs on public health questions has been steadily increasing. Now that they have covered the field in a general way, there arises a demand in women's organizations for more accurate knowledge on the important problems of public health. Recognizing that the state board of health exists for the purpose of serving the people of its state in every way possible, the secretary of the Kansas state board of health has prepared an outline for the use of women's clubs in studying health questions. This outline, issued in a small leaflet, will prove of immense value in directing the work of the women's clubs desiring to take up this line of activity. Under foods and drugs appears a study of foods, including their preparation and preservation, a discussion of a proper ration and selection of foods, food adulteration, the sanitation of food supplies, drug adulteration and drug addiction. Rural sanitation, school sanitation and hygiene, the cost of preventable disease, the disposal of waste and the conditions for a pure water supply are some of the topics included in the outline. Reference to bulletins, government publications, journals and books are also included. In directing the attention of women's clubs to these topics and in furnishing them a logical outline of work to be followed, the Kansas state board of health is not only doing a great service to the people of its state, but is also building up an educated following which will greatly improve the effectiveness of the work of the board itself.

LONG POSTOFFICE HOURS.

Department Will Ignore Eight-Hour Law During Rush of Christmas Mail Matter.

A dispatch from Washington says: Although deprecating the necessity for overworking its employees the postoffice department today announced it would be compelled to close its eyes to the federal eight-hour law during the Christmas rush of mail matter. Carriers and clerks, it was declared, would have to face the necessity of losing beauty sleep and putting in long hours in order that a congestion of mail matter might be avoided.

"While it is not desired to work any hardships on the employees of the service," said First Assistant Postmaster General Roper, "yet it must be kept in mind that the Christmas season is an emergency recognized by the department as justifying the employment of clerks and carriers for more than eight hours daily."

Postmasters are urged to appeal to their patrons to aid in preventing the congestion that usually takes place just before December 25 and during Christmas week.

Christmas gift givers are invited to send their packages earlier than usual, putting on the outside wrappers the inscription "not to be opened until Christmas." This precaution, the postoffice authorities declare, will insure better delivery and make much lighter the labors of the system.

CASE IS SETTLED

W. T. JACKSON VS. G. W. ANDERSON CASE WON BY PLAINTIFF.

BEEN UP SINCE 1910

Judge Burnes Gave Jackson $1,100.25 as Rent and $131 for Another Claim—E. A. Johnson Case Decided.

The attachment case of W. T. Jackson vs. G. W. Anderson which was tried Friday before a jury in the Andrew county circuit court at Savannah was won by the plaintiff, Jackson. The case has been up since 1910, during which time four interpleader cases were filed and disposed of. The defendant made a plea in abatement, stating that he was not disposing of the crops which Jackson claims he owes for rent. The jury sustained the attachment on all of the four grounds. Then judgment was given to Jackson by Judge Burnes against Anderson for $1109.25 as rent money and for another claim of $131 with interest.

The jury in the Andrew county circuit court gave a verdict for the defendants in the case of E. A. Johnson, administrator, vs. S. B. and D. A. Williams. It was over a note of $65.

CUBS GET GAME.

Wen Against All-Stars in Game Played at Normal on Wednesday Evening.

The Normal school league basketball games played Wednesday evening between the All-Stars and Cubs and the Tigers and Giants resulted in a 12 to 7 victory for the Cubs and a 10 to 7 victory in favor of the Giants. In the first game the Cubs seemed to have the edge on the All-Stars in team work and in spite of Captain Vandersloot's valiant work his team was defeated. As did Captain Quinn, whose team also made 7 points. Vandersloot made 5 of the 7 points.

Field goals—Vandersloot, Ritchie, Woodward 2, Schaub, Nicholas, Webster.

Free throws—Vandersloot 3, Woodward, Schaub.

Second game:

Field goals—Ford, Quinn, Powell, McPherron, McReynolds 2.

Free throws—Quinn 3, Powell, McPherron.

The first set of the second round of games between the teams was played yesterday evening, in which the All-Stars trounced the Giants to the tune of 13 to 7. The Cubs nosed out the Tigers by a 10 to 8 score.

This now places the All-Stars at the head of the list with a total of three won and one lost, the Giants and Cubs tied for second place, each having won two and lost two, while the Tigers have staked out the cellar position for their own, having lost three and won one.

The games last night were mostly "rough and tumble," and none of the teams displayed much science or team work. Practically all of the points gotten were the result of individual playing, which isn't the proper conception of the game. Summary:

All-Stars—Vandersloot, Lyle, Price, Ritchie, Neal.

Giants—Goodin, Jones, Powell, McReynolds, McPherron.

Field goals—Vandersloot 2, Lyle 2, McPherron, McReynolds, Powell.

Free throws—Vandersloot 5.

Tigers—Ford, Livengood, Quinn, Webb, Henderson.

Cubs—Schaub, Kissinger, Webster, Wells, Nicholas.

Field goals—Ford 3, Schaub 3, Webster, Nicholas.

Free throws—Quinn 2, Schaub.

Referee—Swinehart.

When this is not practicable coins left in such boxes for the purchase of stamps should be deposited in coin-holding receptacles and not inclosed in envelopes, wrapped in paper, or left loose in boxes. Postmasters and carriers should give this notice as much publicity as possible without incurring any expense to the department.

JAMES I. BLAKSLEE.

The above official announcement, issued by Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Blakslee, is the result of several years persistent effort on the part of the National Rural Letter Carriers' association, and is warmly welcomed by every rural carrier, coming as it does at the beginning of winter. There is usually no good excuse for the rural patron mailing his letters and post cards without stamping them, and to do so is simply to impose upon the carrier.

There are several other ways also in which the patron of a rural mail route may facilitate the delivery of the mail and add to the comfort of his carrier, especially during the winter months.

For instance, by seeing that his mail box is properly and securely erected.

By placing his outgoing mail in the box in such position that the carrier may pick it up without removing his gloves. By making use of the application blanks furnished by the carrier when desiring a money order, and by always having his mail ready for the carrier instead of asking him to wait for it.

The value of prompt and efficient service on the rural routes should not be underestimated, and every patron of rural free delivery of mail should show his appreciation of the service by co-operating with the department in bringing this service to the highest possible plane of efficiency.

This he can do by complying fully and promptly with the requirements of the postmaster general, and especially with the one mentioned at the beginning of this article.

GOOD VOTE AT ELECTION.

Clearmont is Voting Strongly for Electric Lights—Forty for Two Against.

At the time of going to press the vote at Clearmont on the electric light proposition was 40 for to 2 against at the special election being held today. The proposition that is being voted on is to increase the town's indebtedness $400 a year for ten years for the purpose of street lights. If such proposition carries, then Clearmont will make a contract with the Lee Electric company of Clarinda to furnish the juice.

There is no chance of the proposition failing at Clearmont, as the vote for it is too much to overcome.

EDUCATIONAL NOTES.

A Constitutional Amendment for a Higher Tax Rate for Schools Prob- ably Will Be Submitted.

The recent meeting of the State Teachers' association at St. Louis was great in enthusiasm, unity, accomplishment and numbers.

St. Charles county teachers carried off the trophy cup with the enrollment of 118 per cent of the teaching force.

The school board section resolved in favor of giving the initiative in appointment of teachers and choice of textbooks to the superintendent.

A large number of members of school boards were in attendance. All the members of the board from Columbia were among them.

Consideration of a first step in simplified spelling was laid over until next year.

The course in teacher-training was highly endorsed by the association, and the legislature was asked to limit the use of the third grade certificate to one issue.

All teachers are commending the legislature and press for the fine law on consolidation looking toward country high schools.

A revival of Mr. Carrington's proposed law of 1905 for a county unit for education and a county board was launched with great enthusiasm.

Another move that seems to be ready for the near future is state aid for industrial training.

Committees to study and report needs in five lines will be appointed; county unit; constitutional amendments; industrial training; training teachers of agriculture; teachers' pensions.

The school board section passed a resolution favoring a constitutional amendment authorizing a higher tax rate for schools.

English Fishermen Caught It
Charm Against Drowning—Some Other Peculiar Beliefs.

The fishermen of Whitley would never dream of venturing out of port without a little hammer-shaped bone, from the head of a sheep, known as "Thor's hammer," as this little object is a very special charm against drowning. The mole's foot is also a "sure" cure for toothache or cramp—according to locality. Amputated limbs are in some cases preserved so that the cripple may not be deficient in this respect in the next world.

At Scarborough an old peasant has come to be regarded as almost a wizard, for the country folks from round about come to him for relief from rheumatism. His "cure" consists of a copper bangle and ring, and on either end of the bangle two small-bore brass cartridge cases are wedged. These charms are sold to the patient.

In Suffolk a girl always keeps her first tooth; then when she marries and has a child the tooth is suspended about the infant's neck during teething, as it is said to bring instant relief.

These superstitions mostly exist in the counties which are washed by the North sea. Doubtless they are survivals of the days of the bold Viking marauders.—Ireland's Own.

Retold for Tourists.

The Bale-Geneva express, says the Standard's Geneva correspondent, was overcrowded the other day and travelers had to stand in the corridors of the second class coaches. One tourist saw a seat vacant, but covered with luggage and asked a passenger sitting near whether the seat was "occupied." "Yes," replied the stranger, "the man is in the restaurant wagon and will return soon."

There the matter ended until the express reached Lausanne, when the owner of the baggage prepared to get out.

"Pardon me," said the tourist, "that luggage does not belong to you," and called the guard. The latter sided with the tourist and the whole matter was placed before the station master. The selfish traveler had to prove, piece by piece, that the luggage on the seat belonged to him, and he finally was obliged to pay for two second class tickets.

News of Society and Womens' Clubs

Was a Thirteen Affair Generally.

The first Washington luncheon in honor of Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson, our president's bride-elect daughter, was given Thursday by Mrs. Josephus Daniels. Thirteen girls were invited, and as it was the thirteenth day of the month, and Miss Wilson will be the thirteenth White House bride, it was altogether a thirteen affair. Miss Wilson is not at all superstitious about the number thirteen, it is said, and the whole family regard it as a lucky number. All the White House girls were at the luncheon, among them, of course, being Miss Genevieve Clark of Missouri, who is a great favorite in Washington society.

The hostess of the luncheon is the wife of the secretary of the navy. A feature of the occasion was the presentation by Miss Clark, to Miss Wilson, of a small stone cross attached to a chain. It came from Virginia, where the stone is regarded as a "luck piece."

Miss Beatrix Winn of the State Normal faculty went to St. Joseph Saturday morning for a week-end visit with her parents. Miss Winn will attend the meeting of the Federation of Women's clubs in progress there.

There are now twenty-two members. The Sunday school lessons will be studied at each meeting and during the social hour and luncheon the members will devote themselves to sewing.

A Surprise Party.

A number of neighbors gathered at the home of Mrs. F. M. Scott and daughter, Mrs. Ernest West, Thursday afternoon and had a comfort tacking. It was a complete surprise to both. Those present were Mrs. Will Boyd, Mrs. Nick Thull, Mrs. Mary Chambers, Mrs. C. K. Huey, Mrs. George Porterfield, Mrs. Omer Strong, Mr. and Mrs. Wallis Pistole and son, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson West, Miss Cleo Porterfield, Maud and Paul Thull, Ruth and Doras Pistole, Olive Boyd. Dew Drop Inn Club.

Mrs. Ben Yeager was hostess to the Dew Drop Inn club Wednesday afternoon. Readings were given by each one of the members present, and during the afternoon plans were made for a Thanksgiving entertainment to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Baker at their home Thanksgiving evening. This will also begin a series of evening entertainments to be given by the club members during the winter. During the social hour the hostess served a dainty two-course lunch to those present, who were Mrs. Elmer Baker, Mrs. Ben Yeager, Mrs. Will Noakes, Mrs. Harry Farrar and son and Mrs. Claud Moore and son.

It was after the manner of a real reception and was held in the domestic science cottage, with Misses Faye Farmer and Fern Wright as hostesses, assisted by Misses Nellie Hutton and Stella Brown. Punch was served by Mary Louise Andrews and Lila Tabler. The entire affair was given in excellent style.

The Mothers' Circle Meeting.

The Mother's Circle met Friday afternoon with Mrs. George Moore. Mrs. W. C. Van Cleve, the president, gave report of the last meeting in the absence of the secretary. Mrs. C. E. White reported visits to two invalids to whom the Circle sent flowers. The Circle gave a vote of thanks and commendation to Professor Westbrook for taking up the matter of drilling the school children on the fire alarm, for keeping a teacher on the playgrounds with the children, and appointing a teacher to remain during the noon lunch hour with those who had to bring their lunches. Mrs. Eugene Ogden gave an excellent paper on "Religious Training of Children in the Home," and Mrs. White conducted the round table discussion on entertaining children on Sunday afternoons in the home.

The I X L Club Reception.

The members of the I X L Embroidery club surprised themselves Friday afternoon at their reception and art exhibit for two sister embroidery clubs, the Penelope and M. M. M. clubs, whom they received and entertained from 2 to 5 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Walter Mutz. The decorating committee had most artistically performed their duty, autumn leaves and evergreens being used in the rooms, and in the dining room the club colors, yellow and white, prevailed, and the flowers were gorgeous yellow chrysanthemums. In every available space in the rooms, where autumn leaves and evergreens were used, the work of the club was exhibited, a total valuation of $1,200 being placed on the pieces of Mountmellick embroidery and Hardanger work, in table and lunch cloths, doilies, towels, aprons, shirt waists, collars, handkerchiefs, table runners and dresser scarfs, point lace, Battenberg, Irish crochet, filet, cross stitch, punch work, knitted and crocheted bedspreads, round reed and raffa basket weaving. Mrs. Nixon and Mrs. Peery had the largest display, Mrs. Nixon having thirty-eight pieces. The club did not realize what they had done during the three years of its organization until the work was gathered together for its exhibit Friday.

Some of the guests who had attended a recent art exhibit at Marshall Field's in Chicago pronounced it equal to anything on exhibition there in needlework. In the receiving line for the reception were Mrs. Walter Mutz, Mrs. Cooper Gooden, Mrs. I. W. Nixon and

Five Dead Believed to Be Buried Under Mass of Wreckage.

Cedar Rapids, Ia., Nov. 15.—With a roar that was heard for blocks, the rear forty feet of a seven-story building, nearing completion, collapsed, carrying ten men who were working on the concrete roof slab. Four were taken from the ruins injured. One, a negro, George Burrell, died later. The body of William Schneider, the foreman of the men at work on the building, was taken from the ruins. It is now believed that there are five men still buried under a huge mass of concrete, fire tile and twisted steel used in the construction.

They are William Lowe, superintendent; Sid Doty, hoisting engineer; H. B. Westcott, Ed Loran, and Luther Moore, negroes.

The building was being erected for Lyman Bros. company, wholesale milliners.

The concrete for the seventh floor was poured two weeks ago and the roof slab over the remaining portion of the building had just been put in place. A portion of the roof slab gave way and fell to the floor below, where the concrete had not hardened. The floor gave way under the weight, as did all the floors beneath, the steel and concrete falling into a huge pile in the basement.

DUN'S REVIEW OF TRADE

Mercantile and Industrial Situation Continues Fairly Satisfactory.

New York, Nov. 15.—Dun's Review says: Severe storms this week caused interruption to business in certain sections and also involved considerable property loss. Outdoor work was hindered and railroad traffic impeded, the consequent check to the movement of freight affecting both manufacturing and distribution. Advantages accrued, however, from the low temperatures and snow, which accelerated the demand for heavyweight apparel, footwear and fuel.

Broadly considered, the mercantile and industrial situation continued fairly satisfactory. Rather more encouraging conditions prevail in iron and steel.

Developments in the Mexican situation were an important factor in financial circles, with the better outlook reflected in a more confident feeling and a rising tendency in securities. Failures this week numbered 299.

Mrs. O. G. Wait of King City and granddaughter, Julia Katherine Ringgold, arrived in Maryville Saturday morning for a few days' visit with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Nicholas, southwest of Maryville.

TO TAKE CHARGE OF REVIVAL MEETING AT BUCHANAN STREET M. E. CHURCH

DR. U. G. FOOTE OF LOUISVILLE KY.

Dr. U. G. Foote, pastor of the Temple Methodist church at Louisville, Ky., is coming for a two weeks' revival meeting at the Buchanan Street Methodist church, corner Second and Buchanan streets. He will arrive over the Wabash Monday evening or Tuesday morning.

Dr. Foote was for two years pastor of the Methodist church at Jefferson City.

He was transferred from that charge to the Francis Street Methodist church in St. Joseph, where he was pastor for three years, going from there to his present church in Louisville. While in St. Joseph he led the fight against the "vice restaurants." Since going to Louisville he has been active in several movements looking toward a cleaner city.

Dr. Foote is a poet of considerable reputation, having had his verses published in several of the leading magazines and religious periodicals. His sermons are full of warmth and color. In his passion for righteousness he has the ardor of the Hebrew Prophets. He began life as an orphan plough-boy and has risen to a commanding place in his church.

sible for the coming of the immigrant. "As I stand on this platform tonight there are ten thousand families talking about coming to America. American industry means freedom from poverty and ignorance. The immigrant of today comes to the United States not merely to make a living, but to make a better living than is possible at home. He has something to sell—the labor of his hands—and he is looking for the best market. He is a son of the soil; his plain living and clean blood give him a heritage of unshooked strength for factory and farm.

"The expansion of American industry in the past ten years reads like a romance. There are employed seven hundred fifty thousand men in the mines and factories east of the Rockies, and three-fifths of them are foreign born.

"If you will visualize the map of the United States, I will draw a line from the Canadian border of Minnesota south to Minneapolis and on southeast to St. Louis. From St. Louis east and a little north to Baltimore. In this northeast portion of the nation as defined by the lines I have just drawn you have the industrial zone, the workshop of America. Of course, there are important industries outside this zone, such as the cotton mills of North Carolina, the steel mills of Alabama and the mining industries of the great northwest. But they are insignificant as compared to the mining, iron and steel activities of Pennsylvania, the manufacturing of Massachusetts and Rhode Island and the commercial importance of New York, Boston, Buffalo, Chicago and Baltimore. More than 80 per cent of all the coal produced in the Union is dug in this zone. More than 90 per cent of all the iron and steel produced in the nation is produced here. We have in this nation fifty cities that have one hundred thousand or more population, and thirty-two of them are in the territory under consideration. Within this same industrial zone, including fifteen states there are living forty-six million people, about one-half of our national population, and every fourth man in these fifteen states is an immigrant. It is a disturbing thought that should this vast company of people pack up their bags and bundles, and leaving their stifling tenements, set sail for Europe in the morning, that the industries of America would be paralyzed and the wheels of commerce killed. That would, indeed, be a bad day for America.

"The vices of America and the selfishness of American employers make the immigrant a terrific problem. I am not going to argue that the immigrant is an angel, but he is a man. He undoubtedly brings more or less evil with him, but he finds more than these special and localized needs. Home missions is no longer an appeal; it is a command. As Dr. Fullerton of the Presbyterian home board said in my pulpit a year ago, "Unless we Americanize the immigrant he will Europeanize us."

"Now, what is the home mission call?

"It is the call of patriotism. I remember as a boy how I used to lie stretched out on the rug in my father's home and read Gibbon's 'Rise and Fall of the Roman Empire.' I am wondering tonight if, after five hundred years have moved by, the little Mongolian boy will not be stretched out by his father's fireside, reading the 'Rise and Fall of the American Republic.' How can we save America? The church of God holds the answer. Hamlet spoke about taking up 'arms against a sea of troubles.' There are seas of trouble against which a battleship might force its prow in vain—the dominance of merciless corporations, the volcanic rumblings of a widespread and deep rooted discontent, the pride of eyes that cannot see God, and the lust of life that knows no human accountability, the slipping away from the moorings of the ancient faith and the drift into the cold black night pierced by no Bethlehem Star of hope. And only the church of Jesus Christ can show the road for our going, and furnish the motive power for our advance.

"I know this is denied, yea, laughed at. Are we not at the top of civilization? So has been every empire that has broken upon the shoals of fate. Have we not good laws? So had Rome. Have we not fine literature? So had Greece. Not yet has the world reached the pinnacle of the Parthenon. Have we not fine arts? So had Europe in the days of her wildest profligacy and her deepest degeneracy.

"If there is one lesson history has painted in fire and blood upon her canvas, it is this: To the nation, as to the man, to be without God is to be without hope."

"But have we not God on our minted coin, in our state documents and in ten thousand pulpits? The only God that can save America and American institutions is the God in the hearts of the people. Is He there when the vast majority of our workmen—the very brawn of our nation—are non-church? When, as you have heard through this week, some states do not have a fifth or a tenth of their population Christian even in name? In this appeal for the immigrant, which is the dominant home mission problem, I am not appealing primarily for enlightenment for the church as an institution, for more men to proclaim her message, or printing presses to fling it out. My appeal strikes deeper. I will trust in the ultimate triumph of American democracy and the American church, if we can but deepen the spiritual consciousness of American people. Then there will be no lack of power. The church then will be geared to the whole issue as tonight she is not. "I hear the tramp of pioneers, Of nations yet to be, The first low wash of waves where soon

Will roll a human sea."

"If this human sea of immigration now breaking in through the coasts of this continent shall be lit with the Gospel sunrise, it will in turn kindle the coasts of the pagan Orient until 'the whole earth shall be full of thy glory.' It is no Yankee bluster, but the interpretation of Providence, which bids us say. The future of America and the future of truth and righteousness are one and inseparable. As goes America so goes the world. So first upon these shores home and foreign missions strike their palms together and affirm the unity of the Kingdom of God."

SOME DEFINITE PROMISE SOUGHT

Limits Washington Will Go to Renew Parleys Told.

HUERTA'S ADVISERS ANXIOUS.

Carranza Issues Manifesto Declaring He Will Not Accept Outside Interference—Protection of Foreigners Sole Purpose of Hale's Parleys.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Instructions were sent to Charge d'Affaires Nelson O'Shaughnessy indicating to him the extent to which the United States government would go in reopening the negotiations with those councillors of Provisional President Huerta, who earlier in the day sought to renew the parleys.

The anxiety shown by these officials close to General Huerta was regarded as a favorable sign by high officials here who expected some definite assurances would be forthcoming quickly upon compliance with the American demand that the new congress be convened and that General Huerta be eliminated.

The position of the American government, however, is that unless something definite is promised by the Huerta officials the resumption of the negotiations would be fruitless.

Dispatches from constitutionalist headquarters at Nogales, Sonora, announcing General Carranza's absolute refusal to accept any "transaction" with foreign nations looking toward a regulation of Mexico's internal affairs was not commented upon by government officials here. It was suggested in some quarters that General Carranza's declaration was intended chiefly to allay any feeling in Mexico that he was entering into alliances with the United States, a situation that might be made an issue, it is realized here, and develop discord among his followers.

It is stated on the authority of persons in President Wilson's confidence that the Washington administration has never offered mediation through William Bayard Hale or any other interference with a view to regulating internal affairs in Mexico. The sole purpose of the parleys through Mr. Hale, it is pointed out, has been to obtain assurance of protection for all foreign interests in the event that the embargo on arms is lifted.

SUNSET TIED UP BY STRIKE

Officials Man Two Passenger Trains. All Others Annulled.

New Orleans, Nov. 15.—Except for two passenger trains, one arriving and one leaving here, traffic on the Southern Pacific railway in Louisiana is tied up by the strike of engine men and trainmen.

The road will not attempt to operate freight trains and all passenger trains but two through trains have been annulled indefinitely. The train arriving at New Orleans was manned by the road's division of officials from Lafayette, La., and the same crew took out the westbound train. No violence was attempted and the crew was not subjected to the usual boos and jeers attending a strike. Union officials told the men that attempts at violence would mean expulsion of the perpetrators.

The strike will spread further to the west. With the loss of millions of dollars threatening sugar and rice producers of Louisiana because of the strike, business men sent a long message to President Wilson appealing to him personally to intervene to help settle the strike, and learned with pleasure that Assistant Commissioner Hanger had been dispatched to offer his services as mediator.

TAMMANY BAGMAN INDICTED

Everett P. Fowler og Kingston, N. Y., Charged With Extortion.

New York, Nov. 15.—Everett P. Fowler of Kingston, N. Y., who was described by John A. Hennessy, graft investigator for former Governor Sulzer, as the Tammany "bagman" for contributions from state highway contractors, was indicted on a charge of extortion. He was accused of forcing Seneca P. Hull, a highway contractor of Cortland, N. Y., and an enrolled Republican, to give $250 as a Democratic campaign contribution under threat that the work on Hull's $23,500 state road contract in Cortland county would not be approved by the state highway inspectors.

Tight Corsets and Belts Blamed.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—The tight corsets on women and tight belts for men are constant causes of serious ailments of the stomach, according to surgeons who saw Dr. Herbert Patterson of London perform an operation to provide a new outlet for a stomach to replace a badly abused pylorus, which had become inactive. The operation was on a woman and the inertness of the pylorus, surgeons said, was chiefly due to the tight corsets.

Schneider's Term Cut to Two Months.

Washington, Nov. 15.—President Wilson commuted to sixty days the one-year sentence to Joost H. Schneider of Tucson, Ariz., convicted of land frauds after a long battle. F. A. Hyde of San Francisco, convicted with Schneider, will have to serve a full year. Both men will go to Atlanta penitentiary.

SPENCER GIVEN DEATH PENALTY

Murderer of Tango Teacher Convicted at Chicago.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Henry Spencer, confessed slayer of Mrs. Mildred Allison Rexroat, a dancing teacher, was found guilty of murder by a jury at Wheaton. The death penalty was fixed by the jury.

Spencer was arrested Oct. 5, accused of having lured Mrs. Rexroat to Wayne, and placed her body on the railroad tracks after he had shot her to death. Immediately after his arrest Spencer began a wholesale confession, in which he declared he had murdered twenty-nine persons, most of them women. Although the police proved that Spencer could not have committed many of these murders, they still maintain the belief that he killed at least one or two women in addition to the dancing teacher.

Spencer has insisted that he be given the death penalty. When his trial began, however, his attitude in the court room was one of such violence that Prosecutor Hadley saw in it a well defined attempt to establish the belief that the defendant was insane.

Spencer was the only witness to take the stand for the defense. For fifteen minutes he cursed and reviled his counsel and the state's attorney.

Spencer broke into another stream of profanity when he heard the verdict read and then fainted in his chair. "They'll hang me," he shouted.

"They got me. They got me. How does the jury know I wasn't insane? I was insane. I am crazy."

TAFT FLAYS CALIFORNIANS

Says They Should Be Restrained From Mistreating Japs.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Asserting that the Japanese government had faithfully lived up to its treaty obligations by keeping its coolie labor from American shores, former President Taft, in an address before the National Geographic society here, declared that the United States government must keep faith with Japan by refusing to discriminate against its people.

"And," he said, "no matter what the reckless and unjust acts of thoughtless people in California or elsewhere may be they should be restrained."

Before a distinguished gathering of scientists and government officials, the former president scouted the probability of war between Japan and the United States, saying it was the last thing the statesmen of Japan desired.

"The only danger of a war," he added, "lies in our injustice to the Japanese. They are fighting the battle for trade and not for conquest or further acquisition of territory, at least in this direction. All we have to do to avoid other than business rivalry is to treat them as we would wish to be treated."

Dead in Great Lakes Storm 256.

Port Huron, Mich., Nov. 15.—No further report of loss of life in the great storm which swept the great lakes was received here. One more boat was reported wrecked. The steamer Major went ashore off White Fish point, in Lake Superior, and was abandoned by its crew after a futile effort had been made to weather the second storm of the week. The crew was picked up by a passing steamer. The loss of life among sailors due to the storm is estimated at 256, and the property loss is figured at more than $5,000,000.

Bishop Favors Women in Vestries.

Mrs. M. H. Borrusch and son went to Kansas City Saturday morning to visit a few days with Mrs. Lela Jennings Monroe.

CURRENCY BILL DRAFT FINISHED

Six Democrats of Committee Go to Senate Next Week.

GOES TO SENATE NEXT WEEK.

Five Republicans and Hitchcock Organize as the Only Bona Fide Currency Committee, With Nebraska Senator as Chairman.

Washington, Nov. 15.—The administration currency reform bill, as it probably will go to the senate with the approval of President Wilson, was completed by six Democrats of the senate banking and currency committee. Senator Hitchcock and the five Republican members of the committee continued to write into their draft of the measure amendments of which the White House has disapproved. Arrangements probably will be made to send both bills to the senate for consideration some time next week. As completed by the Democrats the measure provides for a system of eight regional banks, to be capitalized by enforced subscriptions from the national banks of the country with unlimited powers of rediscount and currency issue and the power to hold reserves, the entire system to be under the control of a federal reserve board.

Hitchcock Chairman.

Senator Hitchcock and the Republicans, holding that they were the only bona fide banking and currency committee, organized by designating Senator Hitchcock, "the ranking Democrat, as chairman." They declared that the secret session of Chairman Owen and his administration senators was entirely outside of the committee.

The matter probably will be straightened out today, when the administration forces plan to go into committee meeting and endeavor to arrange some program for a report. Senator Hitchcock and the Republicans went after the bill in vigorous fashion. They eliminated entirely a provision allowing the appointment of receivers for insolvent regional banks, holding that a receiver would only tie up the entire reserves of the banks, and that there was no possibility of a regional bank failing. The administration senators put in a provision that no receiver should be appointed, but that the federal reserve board should "take possession of and administer the functions of any regional bank which might become insolvent."

DEFENDS WHIPPING POST

Bareback Lashing of Delaware Convicts Discussed in House.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Bareback whipping of convicts in Delaware was defended in the house by Representative Brockson of that state in a speech that bristled with biblical quotations and legal citations in favor of the rod and whip for chastisement.

Mr. Brockson declared false the charge that Delaware had administered "cruel and unusual punishment," and said the practice of making martyrs of criminals was a curse of modern society.

"I have but little patience," said he "with any man who permits his sympathy to forget the rights of law-abiding citizens of the state."

"The state of Delaware," said Brockson, "being satisfied of the justice of its laws, is willing to stand alone for that which is right rather than to stand with the multitude for that which is wrong."

A resolution by Representative Evans of Montana to direct the president and attorney general to bring in junction proceedings against the Delaware authorities to prevent the whipping of prisoners at Newcastle, Del. today was left by the house without action.

Must Work Extra Christmas Week.

Washington, Nov. 15.—Although deprecating the necessity for overworking its employees, the postoffice department announced that it would be compelled to close its eyes to the federal eight-hour law during the Christmas rush of mail matter. Carriers and clerks, it was declared, would have to face the necessity of putting in long hours in order that a congestion of mail matter might be avoided.

Seer Admits He Received Money.

Chicago, Nov. 15.—James R. Ryan the clairvoyant charged with assisting in swindling Mrs. Hope L. McEldowney out of $15,000, surprised the prosecution by testifying that he received the money from her. He asserted, however, that he really wished to marry her and that she gave him the money to effect a settlement with his wife, thus removing the only barrier to their union.

Slayer Escapes on Way to Prison.

Fort Smith, Ark., Nov. 15.—Arthur Tillman, under sentence of death for the murder of Miss Amanda Stephens leaped from a train near Perry, Ark. while being taken to the state penitentiary, and escaped. Tillman was to be hanged March 10 next.

Farmer Kills Wife; Slain by Son.

Cleveland, Nov. 15.—Louis Van Luyen, a farmer living at Harpersfield, O., shot and instantly killed his wife and then was killed by his son, Mat Luyen, aged seventeen. Young Van Luyen surrendered to the police.
